2.a Respect For The Law

UUE, its Directors and all employees are bound by all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

Compliance with all applicable laws and regulations must be observed and all employees must adhere to all internal company policies, rules and regulations specific to the UUE Group which may go beyond what is requested by law.

This Policy should be read in conjunction with and complied with the following policies:

- a. Board's Policy on Conflict of Interest.
- b. Board's Policy on Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption.

2.b Conflict of Interest

The Board has adopted a Conflict of Interest ('COI') Policy which provides guidance on how to deal with conflict of interest situations. The COI Policy can be viewed at the Company's website at www.uue-holdings.com.

2.c Corporate Opportunities

All employees shall whenever possible, avoid competing with the UUE Group or take personal advantage of business opportunities that arose or may be discovered during the course of their employment unless UUE expressly waives its interest in pursuing such opportunity.

Where any employees desires to pursue business opportunities that UUE is interested or engaged in, they shall inform their Head of Department or the Head of Human Resources Department who will then seek clearance from the Management or Board where applicable.

In respect of Senior Management employees and taking into consideration the processes as set out in the Board's COI policy, the issue should be brought to the attention of the Group Managing Director or in his absence any one Executive Director and in respect of the Board members, it should be brought to the attention of the ARMC for review before being brought to the Board.

2.d Insider Trading

As a general policy, all employees of the Group are discouraged from engaging in speculative trading (as opposed to investing) in the Company's listed securities, and are reminded to observe the prohibitions imposed on "insiders" in relation to Insider Trading under the Capital Markets and Services Act 2007.

In addition to this, all Directors and Key Senior Management personnel, identified and designated pursuant to the Board's Corporate Disclosure Policy ("designated key management personnel") are required to comply with Bursa Malaysia's ACE LR on Dealings in Listed Securities under Chapter 14.

2.e Confidential Information

Confidential Information comprises of any information that is not or has not been released to the public and includes business and trade secrets, business, marketing and service strategies and plans, research information, reports and data, business ideas, products, designs, databases, records, human resource information, and any non-published financial and non-financial data or other data deemed by UUE to be confidential and secret.

Unless required by law or authorised by Management, all employees shall not disclose, divulge or reveal any confidential information, allow or facilitate the disclosure of such confidential information.

All employees are required to use their best effort and endeavour to avoid unintentional disclosure of confidential information including taking precautions and care when storing or transmitting confidential information.

2.f Protection and preservation of Company Assets and Financial Records.

All employees shall safeguard and make proper and efficient use of UUE's assets and financial records.

All employees shall use their best efforts and endeavour to protect the Company's assets and financial records from loss, damage, misuse, theft, fraud, embezzlement and destruction. These obligations cover both tangible and intangible assets including trademark, know-how, confidential or proprietary information and information systems.

UUE reserves the right to monitor and inspect how its assets and financial records are being used by its employees including inspection of all correspondence, e-mails, chat messages, data and files kept on Company's network terminals.

2.g Discrimination & Harassment

UUE respects the privacy, dignity and personal rights of all employees and is committed to ensuring a workplace environment which is free from any discrimination and harassment of whatsoever nature.

The rights of fellow Board members, employees and all stakeholders must be respected and each person must be accorded equal opportunity without regard to their race, colour, creed, religion, national origin, age, sex, marital status, lawful alien status, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation or gender identity.

Employees who feel that they have been discriminated against are encouraged to raise their concerns to the Head of Department or to Head of Human Resources Department or the persons designated under Section 2.h.

2.h Reporting Violations

The maintenance of a strong and highly ethical environment with business conduct carried out with utmost integrity must be reinforced by an efficient reporting structure.

If you are aware of or suspect misconduct or violations of any nature outlined in this Policy, you must report it to the appropriate level of Management.

You are to report in priority firstly to your Head of Department, or failing him the Head of Human Resources Department.

If after speaking with the appropriate levels of Management or you feel uncomfortable speaking to them, you may (if you wish) elevate your concerns to any of the Executive Directors, or failing them to the Senior Independent Non-Executive Directors.

Any reports that involve the Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors or Chief Financial Officer must be communicated to the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Management Committee who will then, where appropriate, table to ARMC before escalation to the Board of Directors.

Your report/calls/emails will be dealt with the strictest confidentiality and will only be disclosed and shared in order to address the matters appropriately. Regardless, the Board of Directors wishes to assure you that the Board will shield and protect you from any retaliation by any other employees of the UUE Group.

This Policy should be read in conjunction with the Board's Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy.

3. CONCLUSION

- (a) This Policy applies to all Employees of the UUE Group (including all Directors).
- (b) Any reports made will be thoroughly investigated and if such violation proven, appropriate disciplinary actions will be taken by the Management with the sanction of the Executive Director's or the Board depending on the nature and level of the Breach including dismissal and termination.

This Policy was approved and adopted by the Board on 28 August 2023.
